

Children's Ministry Curriculum Feedback Survey

For Volunteers

1. What is going well in the children's ministry and what is working with the curriculum and lessons?
2. What "wins" have you experienced or witnessed while serving in the children's ministry?
3. What do you like about the curriculum and the lessons?
4. Do kids seem to be learning and growing, and retaining what they've learned each week? If not, what do you think would help them learn and retain more each week?
5. What isn't working in the curriculum and lessons?
6. What could make the curriculum and lessons better?
7. Are the kids engaged in the lessons and activities, and enjoying them? If not, what do you think would help them engage more?
8. Are the lessons and activities easy to prepare for and teach? If not, what would make them easier?
9. Is there anything that could change about the schedule or flow of the children's ministry time to make it better?
10. Are you able to connect with and communicate with, as well as spiritually partner with parents? If so, share one example or story of how you've been able to build bridges with parents. If not, do you have any ideas that could help our children's ministry better equip and partner with parents?
11. How do you prefer to receive and teach the lessons? (Email, digitally, on paper, on a device/phone/tablet, other)
12. Have you been teaching the lessons as they are written, or editing/tweaking? If you have edited them, what changes have you made, and why?
13. Are the videos age appropriate and attention-grabbing for kids? If not, why not?
14. How much of the prepared lesson are you able to get through during your time with the kids? Do you get to every lesson component you had planned on teaching? Is the content fitting for the time frame?

Children's Ministry Curriculum Feedback Survey

For Parents

1. What is going well in the children's ministry? What do you like about it and what do your kids like about it?
2. What "wins" have you experienced or witnessed with your kids while they have been a part of the children's ministry?
3. Do your kids seem to be learning and growing, and retaining what they've learned each week? If not, what could help them learn and grow more?
4. Do you feel there is clear and consistent communication between parents and children's ministry? If not, what could help it improve?
5. Has the children's ministry helped equip you as a parent and partner with you to lead your child spiritually and grow together in your faith as a family? If so, how?
6. What could the children's ministry could do to better engage and connect with kids, help them grow as disciples, and partner with parents?